

Unite. Empower. Support.

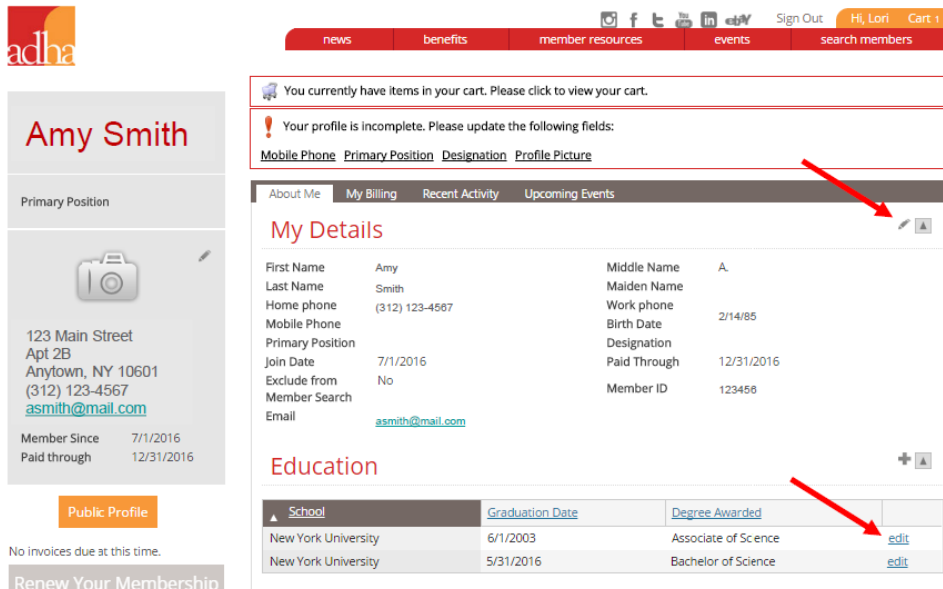

The American Dental Hygienists' Association is here for students and new professionals! By ensuring your information is up to date it allows us to begin your trial professional membership at the right time. Follow the steps below to stay connected.

1 Log into your membership profile at mymembership.adha.org

If you have problems logging in, please contact ADHA at 312-440-8900 or student.relations@adha.net.

2 Update your information

Update any missing profile information, including school, graduation date and degree awarded, and provide a permanent email address.

The screenshot shows the ADHA membership profile for Amy Smith. The profile is incomplete, with a warning message: "Your profile is incomplete. Please update the following fields: Mobile Phone, Primary Position, Designation, Profile Picture". The "My Details" section includes fields for First Name (Amy), Last Name (Smith), Middle Name (A.), Home phone, Mobile Phone, Birth Date (2/14/85), Primary Position, Join Date (7/1/2016), Exclude from Member Search, and Email (asmith@mail.com). The "Education" section is a table with columns for School, Graduation Date, and Degree Awarded. The table contains two entries: New York University (6/1/2003, Associate of Science) and New York University (5/31/2016, Bachelor of Science). Red arrows point to the "edit" links in the "My Details" and "Education" sections.

School	Graduation Date	Degree Awarded
New York University	6/1/2003	Associate of Science	edit
New York University	5/31/2016	Bachelor of Science	edit

4 That's it!

We take it from here. As soon as you reach your graduation date your FREE trial professional membership will begin. Congratulations – you've reached the next step in your dental hygiene career!
